Hanover Street Presbyterian Church, Wilmington, Del., welcomes its Transitional Pastor, The Rev. Dr. Stephany D. Graham Walker, on August 1, 2023.

Rev. Graham Walker, a native of Baltimore, Md., received her Master of Divinity degree from Princeton Theological Seminary; her Doctor of Ministry Degree from the Virginia Union University, Richmond, Virginia; and is a certified Transitional Ministry Pastor and Facilitator with the Pittsburgh Theological Seminary.

Rev. Graham Walker has extensive experience as a pastor and, as a National Staff Associate for Congregational Leadership of the Presbyterian Church (USA), she provided training and developing resources for church staff, volunteers, and young adults throughout the Presbyterian Church (USA). She is active in ecumenical groups related to African American educational and justice initiatives as well as many community and civic organizations.

From 1998-2006, Rev. Graham Walker was an Associate for African American Leader Development, the first office to address African American educational concerns, and developed networks and workshops that increase awareness of the African American church's educational needs and resources. She also envisioned and facilitated the 1001 New Worshipping Community ministry, Spirit Talk "Connections".

Together she and her husband Michael have nine children, twelve grandchildren, and a local extended family.
